Electronic Cigarettes and Tobacco Products: Hidden dangers and implications for public health

- Misconceptions about e-cigarettes
- How do e-cigarettes and tobacco use affect public health?
- Current public health efforts to reduce the burden of tobacco and e-cigarette use
- How health educators can help in schools

Presented by:

Vinny Smith
EPWC Co-Coordinator and Health Educator for Horizon Health NJ

John E. Biegel, III
Health Officer for the Cities of Clifton & Passaic,
Professor of Environmental Health

Layal Helwani
Health Educator, Clifton Health Department

EPWC Quarterly Meeting & Lecture Series

Open to Public — Free!
Monday, February 26, 2018, 4:00-6:00 PM
St Mary’s General Hospital, 2nd Floor Cafeteria
350 Boulevard, Passaic, NJ 07055
Parking available across the street (tickets will be validated)
Light refreshments will be served.

Before the presentation...
The public is invited to attend our open EPWC/ESSEX CEED quarterly business meeting at 4:00 P.M., or to attend just the presentation beginning at 4:30.

Continuing education (CE) credits available for local public health officers and CHES. Professional development hours available for public school nurses.